RECEPTION OF ETHERIDGE. Large Procession-Much Enthusiasm Speeches, Etc.

The announcement that Hon. Emerso Etheridge, the Conservative candidate for Governor of Tennessee, would arrive on the Memphis and Ohio railroad last evening drew an immense throng of people to the depot. On the arrival of the train and the appearance of Mr. Etheridge he was greeted cordially by a large number of personal friends, while the immense crowd cheered enthusiastically and the band played "See the Conquering Hero Comes." A procession was soon formed, headed by Withers' band, Mr. Etheridge being in an open carriage drawn by four beautiful horses, and Dan Able and S. P. Walker occupying seats in the same. About one hundred carriages with citizens followed while thousands of enthusiastic people marched along the sidewalk and street, frequently showing their feelings by cheering heartily. The procession moved along Main street, up Union, and along Front to the Gayoso House, the windows, awnings and balconies along the route being filled by ladies and gentlemen who waved a greeting and cheered the standard bearer of the great Conservative party of Tennessee. It has been many a day since any man received such a welcome from the people of this city On arriving at the Gayoso House, loud calls were made for Mr. Etheridge, when he appeared on the balcony and said he would be insensible to every feeling that animated the human heart should he decline to show his gratitude for the grand reception they had given him. He wished every enemy of freedom and of equal rights were present to witness the manner in which he had been received by the men and women of Memphis simply because he had been selected as the standard bearer of the party who was in favor of freedom and equal rights to all. It was a theme and an occasion which ought to call a blush to the cheeks of those who had traduced the people of this great State. Tomorrow he would address them more in detail, and would again simply express his gratitude for this great manifestation of their respect for him. He could answer them that he had never before entered a contest in which he felt that right was so much on his side. He would carry their banner with pleasure, and could assure them that in his vocabulary there was no such word as fail. Mr. Etheridge was frequently interrupted by the cheers of the people, and retired amid enthusiastic shouts of applause. He was followed by John W. Leftwich, Dan. Able. W. Wallace, John Bullock, W. W. Coleman and C. S. Cameron, who made short speeches; after which the people proceeded quietly to their homes.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION .- The Episcopal Convention assembled at the usual hour vesterday. A committee on as, sessments and one on the educational institutions of the chur ch in the diecese were appointed by the Bishop. Several committees reported and many of the clergymen read their parochial reports. The chairman of the committee on the admission of new parishes submitted a report favoring the admission of the Parish of St. Lazarus into the Diocese. The report was unanimously adopted, and St. Lazarus is now a parish recognized by the Diocese. This effort failed at the last session of the Convention through informality. The lay delegates from this parish are Messrs. Dr. D. Baunders, James A. Anderson and W. S. Pickett. The two latter took their sents in the Convention. The election of officers of the Diocess being in order, Mr. F. W. Smith, of Memphis, was unanimously elected treasurer of the Diocese, and Mr. Wylie B. Miller was unanimously elected Diocesan treasurer of the University of the South. The report of the treasurer of the Missionary and Educational Committee was read and received. The following gentlemen were 81 elected trustees of the General Theological Seminary : Rev. John A. Harrison, Richard Hines, and Mr. F. B. Fogg. Rev. David Pise, and Messra F. C. Dunnington and George R. Fairbanks were elected trustees of the University of the South for the Diocese of Tennessee. Mesars. E. P. McNenl, D. J. Wells and W. B. Miller were elected trustees of the Episcopal Fund; after which Mr. Wylie B. Miller was elected treasurer of the Episcopal Fund.

MASS MEETING IN COURT SQUARE. - As Court Square, to one of the largest asleast five thousand persons are present, neluding a large number of ladies, the Square being one living mass of humanity from the stand in the center to the railings, while many persons were compelled to leave in consequence of being unable to secure a place where they could either see or hear the distinguished speaker. Upon Mr. Etheridge being introduced by S. P. Walker, he was greeted with a shout of applicuse hat was heard for many squares. Mr. Etheridge then addressed the assembly as ladies and gentlemen, stating that he was not entitled to call them fellow-citi zens as of old, for the party in power had passed laws that deprived many of them of nearly all the rights of citizens. He referred, in a calm but scathing manser, to the Radicals who are ruling this State and endeavoring to array the solored people against their old masters and ther white men who differed from the Radicals; the meanest Radicals were those who had supported the Confederacy n her splendor, and then became de serters from the rebel army-the offal that decent rebels left as a sanitary precaution, who were not fit to unloose the shoe strings of the meanest colored man those vote they seek. Mr. Etheridge was frequently interrupted by the cheers of the populace. W. B. Stokes, Radical Congressman from East Tennessee, was on the stand taking notes of Mr. Etheridge's speech, with a view to reply to it.
